What you'll need:

- Small size pumpkins
- Black Marker
- Scissors
- Pilgrim Hat patterns
- Tape
- Glue Stick & Glue
- Construction paper: Brown/Black/Yellow/White
- Peel and stick Googly Eyes

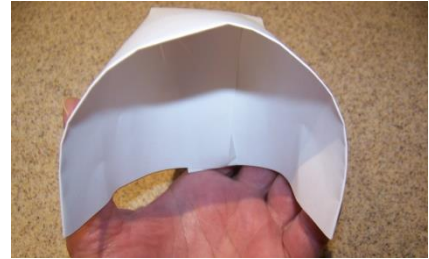

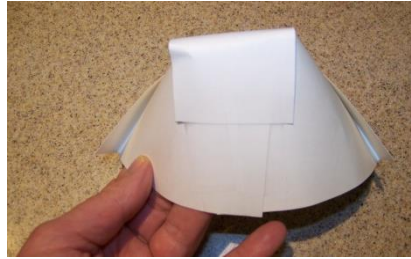

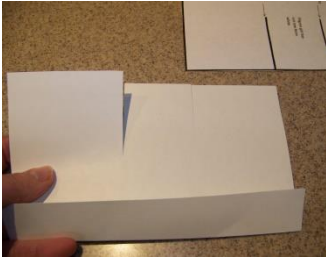

How to make it:

1. Download the Pilgrim pumpkin hat patterns. There is one for the boy hat and one for the girl's bonnet.
2. Cut the hats out of the color paper indicated by the patterns.
3. For the boy's Pilgrim hat: Cut the hat out of brown construction paper or card stock. Cut slits in the paper where indicated on the pattern. Fold the paper along the hat brim fold and glue together with glue stick. Attach the black sash and buckle on top of the sash with glue stick. Bring the top hat edges together and connect with tape. You can use a couple of pieces of tape in the back of the hat to attach it to you your pumpkin.

4. Details: Next attach peel and stick googly eyes. If you don't have peel and stick eyes, you can attach regular googly eyes with double sided tape, or draw in your own eyes with marker. Make a mouth from black construction paper and attach with glue stick or, draw in a mouth with black marker.

5. For the girl's Pilgrim bonnet: Cut out the bonnet from white construction paper and make slits on the paper where indicated on the pattern. Fold the brim of the bonnet back and crease into place. At the back end, curve together the two end flaps and secure with tape. Tape the middle flap down on top of the two back flaps. Tape the bonnet to the pumpkin.
6. Details: Next attach peel and stick googly eyes. If you don't have peel and stick eyes, you can attach regular googly eyes with double sided tape, or draw in your own eyes with marker. Make a mouth from black construction paper and attach with glue stick or, draw in a mouth with black marker.
